Emergency Contacts List

Scouts BSA

A trusted adult is a grown-up you can talk to if you're in trouble. It could be a parent, teacher, counselor, religious leader, or another adult. Your parents or guardians must approve and agree on who your trusted adults are. Try to pick at least five, so you'll always have someone to turn to.

Fill in the list below with your own important phone numbers.

Who	Name	Phone number
Local emergency response
Parent or guardian at work
Parent or guardian cellphone
Nearest relative
Trusted adult (neighbor, family friend)
Scout leader
Religious leader
Local Scouting America Council		